

Grange Month 2009 Essay Contest

"Why every community needs a Grange TODAY."

Attention All Grange Writers

In honor of Grange Month 2009, the National Grange is offering a Grange Essay Contest! This contest is open to all current Grange members (except for staff.) The subject of the essay is "Why every community needs a Grange TODAY."

President Ed Luttrell, with the help of the Communications Department, will select the winning essays. The top three essays will be printed in an issue of The New Grange. The 1st place winner will also receive a plaque and 2 tickets to the Celebration Banquet at the 2009 National Grange Convention in Grand Rapids, MI.

How to Enter:

Email your essay in Microsoft Word or PDF format to jdugent@nationalgrange.org.

or

Mail a hard copy of your essay to:
Grange Month Essay Contest
Attn: Communication Dept.
1616 H Street, NW
Washington, DC 20006

Please include your name, address, phone number, e-mail address, and name of Grange.

Essays must be NO MORE than 500 words.

All essays must be postmarked or e-mailed by March 1, 2009 for consideration.