

Potomac Grange #1
Legislative Fly-In 2004
Scholarship Program

The Potomac Grange #1 Rural Leadership Project is pleased to announce a new Legislative Fly-In Scholarship Program. This scholarship will provide a reimbursable grant towards food and lodging in Washington, DC during the 2004 Fly-In, May 16 – 18, 2004 (for registration information, please visit www.nationalgrange.org/legislation/legislative_flyin.htm). For over five years, the National Grange Legislative Fly-In has provided Grangers from all over the country the opportunity to spend time on Capitol Hill and speak directly with their state and local representatives. Also included in this event are educational and informative workshops and the opportunity to take in the sites and cultural activities this great city has to offer.

Preference will be given to applicants with the following criteria, but any Grange member interested in attending the 2004 National Grange Legislative Fly-In is eligible to apply. Please check all that apply:

- ___ Married and planning to attend as a couple
- ___ Under 35 years of age
- ___ First time National Grange Fly-In participant
- ___ Active participation in your local or state Grange legislative program.

In addition to the information requested below, please include an essay consisting of no more than 400 words titled “How Attending the 2004 National Grange Legislative Fly-In will Help My Local Grange.”

DISCLAIMER

The Potomac Grange Legislative Fly-In Scholarship covers the cost of up to four nights actual lodging at the Club Quarters Hotel. Recipients are responsible for making their own separate reservations for both the Fly-In 2003 and hotel accommodations. Potomac Grange will reimburse scholarship recipients for the actual room costs for up to four nights.

Please be aware that the decision regarding who will receive the scholarship will be determined by Potomac Grange #1. All decisions are final.
