

Potomac Grange #1
Legislative Fly-In 2005
Scholarship Program

The Potomac Grange #1 Rural Leadership Project is pleased to announce a Legislative Fly-In Scholarship Program. This scholarship will reimburse recipients for their travel, food and lodging in Washington, DC during the 2005 Fly-In, March 14 – 15, 2005. For 8 years, the National Grange Legislative Fly-In has provided Grangers from all over the country with the opportunity to spend time on Capitol Hill and speak directly with their elected officials. Also included in this event are educational and informative workshops and the opportunity to take in historic and cultural activities in the nation’s capitol.

Preference will be given to applicants with the following criteria, but any Grange member interested in attending the 2005 National Grange Legislative Fly-In is eligible to apply. Please check all that apply:

- ___ Married and planning to attend as a couple
- ___ Under 35 years of age
- ___ First time National Grange Fly-In participant
- ___ Active participation in your local or state Grange legislative program.

In addition to the information requested above, please include an essay on a separate piece of paper consisting of no more than 400 words titled “How Attending the 2005 National Grange Legislative Fly-In will Help My Local Grange.”

DISCLAIMER

The Potomac Grange Legislative Fly-In Scholarship will reimburse participants for their travel and the cost for up to three nights of actual lodging during the 2005 Legislative Fly In, not to exceed the actual costs of staying at the Club Quarters Hotel. Recipients are separately responsible for registering to attend Fly In 2005 and for making their own travel reservations and hotel accommodations.

The decisions regarding the recipients of the 2005 Fly In scholarships will be determined by Potomac Grange #1. All decisions are final.
