Grange Month is only a couple weeks away—are you ready? Does your Grange have its plans ready for the special event or activity you’re having during April? If not, here are some things other Granges are doing right now, as seen on Facebook.

NC – Taylors Bridge Grange #1066 gave a grant to a teacher to purchase library books for the implementation of a program for accelerated readers in first grade.

MA - Whatelye Grange held a winter farmers market, complete with maple sugaring display.

CO – Cindy Greer’s Grange held a luau complete with hula dancers – professional and Grangers!

CA – Redwood Valley Grange #382 partnered with community organizations to hold a Seed Swap at their Hall. Sebastopol Grange #306 also held a Seed Swap. Santa Cruz Live Oak Grange held a workshop on fundamentals of winter fruit tree pruning in the Grange’s orchard.

RI – Moosup Valley Junior Grange held a Disaster Preparedness Day, offering lots of information on what to do in an evacuation emergency, including pets’ needs.

OR – Crow, Creswell, Lorane, and Goshen Granges worked together on a dinner fundraiser for a local family fighting cancer. Creswell Grange held a workshop for the community on “Getting the Most from Your Small Kitchen Appliances.”

WA – Swauk Teanaway Grange #984 held a Chili Challenge.

NV – High Desert Grange is holding a crochet club.

Some of these events were educational, some helpful, some just fun! What is your Grange planning so you can be recognized in your community?

As Clara Scott, Montana Community Service chairman, said, “Community Service efforts have been a keystone of Grange since the Order began. The work of the founding fathers was built upon what this organization could do for its members and the communities in which they lived. Community Service is an integral part of the Grange that allows local...
Grange has youthful presence at National Ag Day

Ambassadors, Young Patrons join others to represent oldest ag-vocacy org

ABIGAIL SHARP
National Grange Intern

Around the country, many celebrated farmers, ranchers and food as part of National Ag Day, but for several members of the Grange, the day included advocacy in Washington, D.C.

National Grange Young Patrons, Katie Fallon of New York, and Brittney Oliver, of Washington, and National Grange Youth Ambassadors, Rylee Furr and Zac Mazag, both of North Carolina, traveled to Washington DC on March 13, excited to be a part of the event. National Grange Intern and New Jersey Grange Member Abigail Sharp also took part in the events.

“National Agriculture Day is really about celebrating today’s opportunities for the next generation to survive and thrive in agriculture,” National Grange Legislative Director Burton Eller said.

The team and Sharp had scheduled meetings with their Congressmen and Senators on Ag Day and took part in briefings at the Grange building over the course of the two days.

The eve of National Ag Day saw the group, and several Grange Staff along with National Grange President Betsy Huber at Capitol Visitor Center for the Taste of Ag event where they mingled and networked with counterparts from ag-oriented nonprofits and corporations.

Following that event, Eller briefed the attendees on what was expected and most efficient when meeting with Congressional Representatives and their staff.

He stressed early arrival, making discussion relevant to the district and your hometown, and how to talk about Grange priority issues.

The main Grange policies that he provided more detailed information about were rural broadband and privacy, telemedicine and health care, ag labor and imported drugs.

On Ag Day, Youth Team members and staff set off to the Hill. In all, the team saw North Carolina Senator Thom Tillis, Congressman Jeff Van Drew, of New Jersey, and Congressman Dan Newhouse, of Washington; as well as staff members from the offices of New York Senator Kirsten Gillibrand, North Carolina Congressman Richard Hudson and North Carolina Senator Richard Burr.

Furr said after her three appointments that she felt connected to the legislators and believed she had made a small impact for her neighbors back home.

The team also attended an Ag Day panel discussion at the National Press Club, led by Deputy Secretary of the USDA Stephen Censky, which focused on the future of agriculture as well as misconceptions of agriculture from the perspective of high school and college students from various backgrounds.

The panelists were asked what organizations they are interested in joining after college, and, if they aren't sure, what traits are they looking for in an organization, and they all discussed assets of a future organization involvement in a broader community and a focus on advocacy — resonating with the Grangers in the room and reminding them that our grassroots structure and service are relevant for future members like these.

Mazag said for the Youth Team, this was an opportunity to experience part of what National Grange does to advocate for rural America and its members, and a great way for the Grange to help youth see what they may want to become.

“The biggest thing I gained from yesterday was simply being in the political, DC environment,” Mazag said. “It solidified the fact that I want to work on Capitol Hill one day.”

members to interact and serve the communities where they live.... If we want to be more involved in our neighborhood or community, then we must introduce our Grange to the community through our Community Service projects.”

Saturday night I got to see one of my favorite groups, the Oak Ridge Boys, and they sang a song that really spoke to me called “Did I Make a Difference?”

Did I make a difference in somebody’s life?
What hurts did I heal? What wrongs did I right?
Did I raise my voice in defense of the truth?
Did I lend my hand to the destitute?
When my race is run, when my song is sung
Will I have to wonder, did I make a difference?
Did I make a difference?
If you’re a Granger, you don’t have to wonder about this question—the answer is YES!

PURETALK BENEFIT DISCONTINUED

As of April 15, the discount on PureTalk is no longer available to Grange members due to the lack of interest from across the country. However, PureTalk has agreed to honor the terms and condition of the program for those already enrolled.
Welcome prospective members into Grange with open house during Grange Month in April

JOE STEFENONI
National Grange Membership & Leadership Development Director

April is Grange Month, and it is the perfect opportunity for your Grange to share the Grange story with your community.

Consider holding an open house for the community (and prospective members) to come visit your Grange.

Why hold an open house?

There’s a myriad of reasons, but open houses are an efficient and easy way for your Grange to showcase what your Grange is doing to improve your community and to show off your Grange hall, which is an asset to the community. An open house is also a good opportunity for your Grange to create a display that can be used at other events to promote your Grange.

To begin this process, the first thing to do is pick a date that will allow your members to attend while also taking into consideration other events going on in your area; don’t pick a date that another community event is already scheduled.

It’s important to have a solid core of members at the event to greet and welcome the community members that come.

Be sure to introduce yourself as a member of the Grange, and ask them questions about their involvement in the community.

It is important to create an open environment that is welcoming to anyone who should choose to attend.

As with every event your Grange hosts, set a budget for your open house and take into account the cost of promotional materials and give away items.

Create a short program of activities for the event including a welcome and introduction from a Grange leader (the Master/President, membership chairperson, etc.), a short introduction to what the Grange is and what you do and finally information about becoming a member of your Grange and the benefits associated with being a Grange member.

At least a week before your open house, reach out to local television, radio and newspapers to let them know about your event and any special information related to your Grange (your longevity in the community, a special guest speaker or topic of the day). Make sure to also post it to social media if you have an account, such as to your Grange’s Facebook Page as an event.

A crucial part of successfully sharing information about your Grange activities is an engaging display.

Your Grange display can be anything from a table with information on Grange membership and programs to a video with a collection of pictures detailing your Grange’s history and activities. No matter how intricate your display is, it should be visually appealing with eye-catching images and not too many words.

Also have available at your display and around the room informational materials about the Grange that a prospective member could read, take home or share. Brochures can be purchased from the National Grange if your Grange doesn’t have its own membership materials.

Creating a display to promote your Grange has long-term benefits.

Most importantly, it is a resource for your Grange to use at other events in your community. By attending community events, you build recognition of the Grange name and activities on which to base your membership recruiting efforts.

Secondly, the National Grange membership department contest in 2019 is to create a membership display that promotes your Grange.

Full details on the contest are on the following page. You may also enter any of your promotional material in the National Grange Lecturer’s PR Contest, detailed later in this issue.

If you use the Grange Month theme related to Grange Heroes, you can also enter the Communications Department Grange Hero Identity Campaign. Information on that contest is included on the next page as well.
2019 National Grange Membership Department Contest

The goal of this contest is to create a display promoting your Grange and to use it in the community your Grange serves. Grange displays should promote the active role your Grange takes in its community by highlighting the activities and functions your Grange puts on, the community service projects it engages in, and the future vision of the membership. The displays can also briefly highlight the history of the organization. Displays should be visually appealing, including pictures to enhance the viewer's experience.

Displays can be both active and passive in nature. Active displays are ones where Grange members are there to talk to potential new members and answer any questions about what your Grange does. Passive displays are ones that are set up for the public to view without anyone being there to answer potential questions. Both displays should have the information necessary for someone to find out more information about your Grange including, but not limited to: website, meeting date & time, email, social media addresses, etc. Displays should also be stocked with pamphlets about the Grange and membership applications for anyone wishing to fill one out.

In developing your display, consider what your Grange does to improve your community and the things that would entice people to join your Grange and become active members. Also consider what are the outcomes of being a Grange member, not just the features of membership.

There are two categories to this contest: 1) Digital Displays and 2) Non-Digital Displays

Digital displays can be a video, or a collection of images and text that showcase what your Grange does to serve its members and better its community. Digital displays can be created in a variety of programs including, but not limited to: Microsoft PowerPoint, Prezi, Google Slides, Keynote, iMovie, Adobe Spark, Windows Movie Maker, and Impress. Digital displays can also have audio laid over the images with a narrator explaining the outcomes of being a Grange member and why someone should join the Grange. Digital displays should be viewed on a laptop computer or TV screen that is set up at the events your Grange is working.

To enter this contest, please submit to the National Grange Membership Director a short (up to two page) write-up of where your Grange placed its display and what interest the display generated; did you take in new members? Develop new contacts within your community? Develop a new program based on the needs of your community members? Along with the write-up please submit up to five photos of your Grange display in action. Digital displays need to be created in some form of digital media that can be universally shared and viewed. If your Grange created an information or membership pamphlet specific for your Grange to go along with your display, please include it as well.

The top four displays in each category will be displayed in the Showcase at the 153rd National Grange Convention.

Grange Hero Identity Campaign

The National Grange Communications Department is looking for great examples of the way Granges and members are talking about their work as heroes in their community for various audiences. This contest requires Grange members or Granges to communicate both digitally via social media and in a more traditional way with members and their audience.

Entrants must use at least two social media platforms (Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, Snapchat, YouTube, etc.) to promote the Grange and our identity as heroes in our communities. At least one of your posts during the contest period must show that you have used the 2019 Theme poster (see nationalgrange.org/GrangeMonth or contact National Grange Communications Director Amanda Brozana Rios to get a file or copy of the poster). Save by screenshot or other method posts throughout the campaign period and upload to a Flickr album that you will share as your contest submission. Also throughout the contest period, you are encouraged to use the tag or hashtag function to link back to the identity campaign, or other function similar depending on the social media platform. You can tag @NationalGrange or use #grangeheroes or #grange.

There are two classes for entry: Individual and Grange, which can be Subordinate, Pomona or State Granges. Juniors or Junior Granges are disqualified to enter individually but may take part in the contest under the guidance and supervision of a Subordinate Grange or Junior leader or parent/guardian. The contest will be judged based on accuracy and creativity of posts, uniqueness to the platforms chosen, frequency of posts, engagement by your audience and engagement by your account with other Grange posts/messaging (ex. National Grange post shares with comments, etc.).

When entering the contest, provide the following information via email to communications@nationalgrange.org

1) Name of Submitter and Individual or Group (name) entry; 2) Social Media Platform username/link 1 and 2; 3) Additional Social Media Platform usernames (optional); 4) Basic overview of engagement, audience metrics, etc. of the social account (provides the detail available through the platform’s reports or write anecdotally as accurately as possible about these items); 5) Link to Flickr album of no less than 20 per platform, no more than 100 per platform posts; 6) Short essay (no more than 500 words) on what you learned from this experience about what the Grange on a local level can gain from the use of social media.

Grange Month is coming. Celebrate by sharing

AMANDA BROZANA RIOS
National Communications & Development Director

All throughout Grange Month you’ll see social media posts on the National Grange Facebook celebrating the things Grangers and Granges do in their communities that are heroic to go with our 2019 theme.

You can help tell the Grange story to your community and show the many ways those who join the Grange can help their neighbors through simple acts as members of our Order.

By going to the National Grange Facebook page, or when you see something from the National Grange in your Facebook newsfeed, you can amplify our messaging by clicking on the “Share” button and sharing posts to your personal Facebook profile or to your Grange Facebook Page.

You can choose to share only or you can put your own message on top. As an example, with the image to the right, if your Grange has provided dictionaries through the Words for Thirds Program in your Community, you could write a few words, something like: “Sample Grange has given third-graders at Sample Elementary dictionaries for seven straight years, helping hundreds of children fall in love with words and encouraging literacy.” If you’re running a fundraiser or event related to the post you could invite people to “donate to the dictionaries fund by sending a check to ...” or “stop by the Grange Hall on Tuesday night when we pack activity sheets, paste stickers in the dictionaries and prepare a kit for the classroom before our meeting during our potluck at 6:30 p.m."

Don’t have Facebook? There’s still ways you can share our heroism!

Download these posts that we will turn into posters. You can hang in your Hall or around town to let people know what the Grange is and how they can join our bunch of heroes by logging onto tiny.cc/NG-Heroes (this is case sensitive).

While there are only a few in the folder right now, more will be added throughout the month.

GIVE US YOUR IDEAS!

Does your Grange do something that you think is heroic? Or maybe you do something and you want to know HOW to talk about it in the context of heroism. Email communications@nationalgrange.org and we will provide you a graphic for use or interpretation!

Project connects future leaders with founding member

SAMANTHA WILKINS
National Junior Grange Director

The Oliver Hudson Kelley Farm in Elk River, Minn., is home of one of the founders of our Grange Order. They could use the aid of the Junior Grangers from across the country to help feed the animals at the Kelley Farm. With workhorses, oxen, milk cows, pigs, sheep, and chickens to feed every day of the year, all donations large or small are greatly appreciated and will help with the feed costs a great deal.

Plan with your Junior Grangers a way to ‘support an animal’ on the Kelley Farm.

Here is a break down of how much it costs just for grain to feed the animals on the Kelley Farm:

- Raising a pig from birth to finish = $150 (one season)
- Care for a horse per year = $1800
- Care for a Cow per year = $900
- Care for an Ox per year= $1000
- Lamb birth to yearling = $150
- Broiler hatch to finish (5 weeks) = $5
- Turkey hen (14 weeks) = $17
- Turkey Tom (18 weeks) = $19

You can write to the farm for more information at Oliver H. Kelley Farm, c/o Ann Bercher, 15788 Kelley Farm Rd., Elk River MN 55330. You can also send an email to kelleyfarm@mnhs.org.

To see pictures of the Kelley Farm animals, visit the Minnesota Historical Society website at www.mnhs.org, and click on Oliver H. Kelley Farm.

Brothers and Sisters,

I am looking forward to participating in the Mid-Atlantic Grange Leaders Conference this week and to taking the opportunity to share the contests and programs of the National Grange Lecturer with members of all ages and experiences.

These regional conferences are fantastic events at which to share, to grow, to learn, to meet new friends, to build excitement, to create enthusiasm and so much more. Please take the time and make the effort to attend the Leaders Conference in your region — the greater the participation, the greater the experience for all.

2019 National Grange Public Relations Contest

I am excited to announce the 2019 National Grange Public Relations Contest which is a new contest open to all Granges (State, Pomona, Community and Junior), Grange committees or Grange groups (i.e., auxiliary, youth, Junior 1+).

The goal of this new contest is two-fold — first, to recognize the public relations work being done by our Granges across the country and second, to share this work with other Granges with the intent of fostering more public relations efforts.

A couple of key points regarding this new contest — first place prize money in each division is $200, there is NO limit on the number of items that can be submitted; and ALL entries will be shared by National Grange with State, Community and Junior Granges across the country.

In addition, all entries will be shown at the 153rd annual session of the National Grange in November.

I have attached the 2019 National Grange Public Relations Contest info sheet and entry form — please make as many copies as you need.

2019 National Grange Foundation Quilt Raffle

The National Grange Foundation is again holding a quilt raffle for a queen-size (70” x 85”) quilt made from the Tender Heart quilt blocks submitted to the 2018 National Grange Lecturer’s Quilt Block Contest, including the top three entries in the adult and junior categories. Please see the attached flyer.

This is a fantastic opportunity for a Grange to purchase $50, $100 or more in tickets for the opportunity to win this fantastic quilt and THEN TO TURN IT AROUND AND MAKE THOUSANDS ON A FUND-RAISER OF YOUR OWN!

I bring this to you now so you have time to consider this opportunity at your next Grange meeting, then let me know how many tickets you would like to purchase and I'll set you up.

2019 Grange Foundation Mercantile

Once again the Grange Foundation Mercantile will be open for business in 2019 at the 153rd annual National Grange convention in Minnesota this November.

This year the Mercantile is going to focus on "hard" versus "soft" items.

We are seeking high-quality handcrafted items out of materials such as wood, leather, metal, antlers, rock, glass, gemstones, sterling, pine needles, etc.

The success of the Mercantile in raising funds for the National Grange Foundation is based on the generosity of our members and friends who donate their beautiful handicrafts to the cause.

I have attached the Mercantile donations flyer for 2019 as well as the 2019 Mercantile donation form for your use.

2019 Quilt Block Contest
The 2019 Quilt Block Contest information sheet has been amended.

The final size of the block should be 12 inches x 12 inches and not 12-1/2 inches by 12-1/2 inches. Please share this amended information with anyone and everyone who might be interested in completing the 2019 Pride of Quillissacut block.

The AMENDED 2019 Quilt Block Contest information sheet and entry form are attached to this newsletter.

Quilts of Valor Foundation
It is not too early to begin preparing for our Quilts of Valor presentation at the 153rd annual session in Minnesota on Wednesday, November 6, 2019.

I am still looking for Grange members and Grange quilting groups in the Midwest Region and across the country who would like to make Quilts of Valor to be presented to active duty Grange members and Grange veterans as part of this presentation.

Please let me know if I can add you to my Quilt of Valor quilt making list and many thanks to those of you who have already pledged a quilt.

For additional information, I can be reached by Email at lecturer@nationalgrange.org or by phone at 509.953.3533 (voice or text).

2019 Quilt Block Contest

Pride of Quillisascut
(based on the Disappearing Nine Patch, also called Split Nine Patch)

Fabric:

Three fabrics. The key to this block is that there is good contrast between all three fabrics.

Fabric A should be a medium to dark print.
Fabric B should be significantly lighter than fabric A.
Fabric C should be BRIGHT! Not a pastel bright, but a strong BRIGHT!

All fabric used should be cotton.

Constructing the Quilt Block:

Cut all pieces to 4-½ inch x 4-½ inch square.
Fabric A: Cut four.
Fabric B: Cut four.
Fabric C: Cut one.

Use a ¼ inch seam allowance. Sew into three rows: ABA, BCB, ABA. Sew the rows together into a single block. At this point the block should measure 12-½ inches x 12-½ inches.

Cut the block into four equal pieces through the middle. Rotate two blocks. Sew the block back together using a ¼ inch seam allowance. Now the block should measure 12 inches x 12 inches. Press all seams. Clip and remove all threads.

Note: Special recognition and thanks to the Quillisascut Quilters of Quillisascut Grange #372 in rural, northeast Washington state for taking on the challenge of selecting the block for the 2019 National Grange Quilt Block Contest by virtue of one of their members, Joan Roberson, winning the 2017 contest. Fantastic work!

"Superheroes" and "Heroes" in Branding

As a result of the popularity of superheroes, many organizations and companies have begun to use this term, as well as "Heroes" as trademarks or as part of slogans. We need to be careful about how these terms are used so that we do not run into anyone else who has trademark rights in these terms. For example, DC Comics and Marvel Comics jointly own several trademark registrations for variations of "Super Heroes" and "Superheroes" for clothing and publications (comic books). There are also several charitable organizations who are using "Heroes" as part of their names or as slogans to identify their services. This does not mean we cannot use "heroes" or "superheroes" in promoting this theme – we simply need to be careful not to accidentally infringe on anyone else's rights.

To put this in context, we have had issues with third parties using the term "Grange." These entities claim that "Grange" is a "common word found in a dictionary," and therefore should not be "owned" by any business or entity. However, we know that when these entities are using "Grange" as part of a name or slogan, people may believe, mistakenly, that there is a connection between the goods or services of these entities and the Grange. As we expect our trademark to be respected, we will do the same with the terms "superhero(es)" and "hero(es)."

What does that mean?

When creating social media posts, advertisements and posters for events – something we will produce at the National level and make available to all Granges for adaptation (addition of your Grange and event details) – we must be cognizant of the legal parameters established. We will not be using "hero(es)" or "superhero(es)" as slogans. However, we can use these terms generically and in sentence context to mean people who are courageous, noble and serving their community! For example, it is acceptable to describe our caped Grange members doing good for their community as "heroes" or "superheroes," or to use these terms as part of a sentence. It is also acceptable to use the full identifier for the theme — Grange: A fraternity training heroes for our hometowns since 1867.
